

Westhill CMS

The Westhill Content Management System (WCMS) is an online website management solution. It is customisable, modular and can be personalised to suit your needs. And it's a cinch to use – no aspect of the system requires any html or programming knowledge.

Key features

Section/page management

- Add/edit unlimited sections/pages
- Change section/page order
- Change live status
- Preview before you commit

News engine

- Add/edit unlimited news stories
- Change story order
- Push stories to the home page
- Automatically make live/close on any date
- Automatic archiving

Browser based

- Fully compatible with Internet Explorer 7 and later
- No downloads required

Powerful WYSIWYG editor

- Leading WYSIWYG (what you see is what you get) editor
- Word compatible
- Powerful suite of tools

User administration

- Add/remove admin users
- Control who can do what

Document management

- Add/edit unlimited documents
- Pdf, doc(x), xls(x), txt, mp3, wma, wmv...
- Automatically make live/close on any date

Image management

- Upload unlimited images (jpg, png or gif)
- Easy to use image library
- Include those images on any page

RSS feeds

- Each news section automatically creates RSS XML feeds
- RSS cached to optimise site performance

Accessible

- Front end accessible to minimum W3C Level A
- In practice the majority of our designs are Level AA

Miscellaneous

- Friendly URLs – create multiple short URLs useful for campaigns
- SEO friendly
- Google analytics installed
- Local Google search engine option available

Benefits

- Minimum site maintenance
- No programming skills required
- Fully upgradeable and customisable
- Front end designed to your requirements
- Full hosted option

Specification

- Asp.net 2.0/3.5
- XHTML
- Microsoft SQL
- Microsoft Windows 2003 for hosting
- Requires IE7 + for admin area

Contact

Brett Willis

38 Charlotte Street,
London W1T 2NN.

Phone: 020 7631 0274

Email: brett@westhill.co.uk